

STATE OF DELAWARE
Division of Forensic Science

Forensic Investigator I (Forensic Death Investigator)

Recruitment #060419-MBAB01-450100

Closing Date: 6/18/19, 11:59pm

To view full posting information and to apply, go to www.delawarestatejobs.com

Job Summary: The incumbent investigates deaths falling under the jurisdiction of the Division of Forensic Science (DFS). Duties include but are not limited to: scene investigation, reports preparation and lifting/transporting bodies of all weights to DFS facilities in Wilmington, DE and Georgetown, DE. The incumbent interacts professionally with law enforcement, medical facilities or agencies, law enforcement and private physicians and family members. Hours include regularly scheduled duty hours and twelve-hour shift week-end coverage.

Job Requirements: Applicants must have education, training and/or experience demonstrating competence in each of the following areas:

1. Six months experience in conducting investigations which includes conducting interviews to obtain confidential information, gathering evidence and documenting findings.
2. Six months experience in determining compliance with laws, rules, regulations, standards, policies and procedures.
3. Six months experience in providing testimony before boards, commissions, administrative bodies or court officials.
4. Six months experience in narrative report writing.
5. Knowledge of civil, criminal or administrative proceedings.
6. Knowledge of forensic, medical and legal terminology.
7. Possession of a valid Driver's License (not suspended, revoked or cancelled or disqualified from driving)

Selective Job Requirement: This requirement must be met in addition to the Job Requirements above. Applicants who do not possess the selective requirement will not be qualified.

1. Six months experience in conducting forensic or death investigations.

Preferred Job Requirement: Applicants who do not possess this preferred qualification will still be eligible to complete for this position if job requirements above are met.

1. Possession of an American Board of Medicolegal Death Investigations (ABMDI) certificate.

Conditions of Hire: A satisfactory background check (including a fingerprint-based background check administered by the Delaware State Police is required as a Condition of Hire. The selected candidate will be required to submit a buccal swab for DNA upon employment and subjected to randomized drug testing during the term of their employment.

Employment Details: Information about salary, hours, benefits etc can be found in the job posting.

Learn more about the Delaware Division of Forensic Science: www.delaware.gov, search Division of Forensic Science.

